SATURDAY, July 9. The market for securities has not responded to the very decided progress made this week toward terminating the war with Spain. The destruction of Spain's Atlantic squadron early in the week will unquestionably prove to be the most important event of the war. Not only has the enemy been deprived of, a powerful part of its forces, but the possibility of attacks upon our Atlantic Coast has been effectually and permanently disposed of. At the same time, it is plain that Spanish troops in Cuba. Manila and Porto Rico are practically at our mercy. Although the war is not over, a sufficient number of decisive steps have been taken to foreshadow Its formal conclusion in the near future, upon whatever terms the United States may see fit to impose. This being the case, it can logically be assumed that the market for securities runfter should be governed chiefly by purely commercial and financial considerations.

Chief among these last is the placing of the new Government lean. Within a week that transaction will be practically closed. In the meantime comparatively large amounts of money are being transferred to the Treasury on account of subscriptions for $500 or less of the new bonds. The weekly Banks shows a loss in lawful money, nearly all of it in specie, of nearly $0,670,000. The indientions are that this money, and even a larger amount, for heavy Treasury disbursements have offset to an extent payments to the Treasury, has been paid into the Treasury o account of the new bonds. Within the next week or ten days even larger amounts will be paid upon the same accounts The banks appear to be abundantly able handle their part of the business, for in spite o to-day's decrease of over $8,500,000 in the surplus they hold over $53,250,000 of lawfu money in excess of the reserve required. The greatest change in to-day's statement was in the loans, which were nearly $12,700,000 large than last week. This expansion of the loans is due in part to borrowing by corporations in anticipation of earnings to meet semi-annual interest due July 1, and also to the shifting o loans incidental to the completion of the first half of the calendar year.

The noteworthy movements in stocks this week have been advances in the so-called Van derbilt shares and declines in the anthracite coul stocks. The losses in the last named were most pronounced in Central of New Jersey which suffered a net decline of 34 7 cent and in Reading first preferred, which sustained a net loss of 4% W cent. The other noteworth net declines were in stocks that as a rule do not receive much attention. The list as a whole showed a good deal of strength, being sustained both by moderate buying fo investment and by manipulation in favor of higher prices. The anthracite coal stocks were again under the hammer, but did not decline materially. Other features of the market were net advances of 3 points in Omaha common 2% in Illinois Central and 1% ₩ cent. in Northwestern common.

The general trade reports published this morning tell of a fairly satisfactory condition of business during the summer months The greatest activity is noted in the iron industry, which is consuming, without an advane in prices, an extraordinarily large amount of raw material. Crop prospects are in the main favorable, and the indications are that there will be a fairly large foreign de-mand for staple breadstuffs. The floating of the Government loan is not likely to disturb the money market, because of the constant heavy disbursements by the Treasury on account of the war and the arrangements that have been made to leave the proceeds of a large part of the loan in depositary banks until the money is needed by the Government. The adjournment of Congress removes an element of uncertainty from the general business situation, and the prospects calculated to encourage the investment demand for securities, which has been a feature of the Btock Exchange markets during the last two or

As compared with the final prices of Friday, July 1, the majority of stocks are higher. Th more important net advances are in Omaha. 65 Feent : Canada Southern, 45: Northwest and Illinois Central, 324 each; New York Central, 3%; United States Rubber preferred, 3%; American Tobacco, 24; Cleveland, Cincinnati. Chicago and St. Louis and Louisville and Nashville, 1% each: Southern Bailway preferred, 1%; Burlington and Quincy, St. Paul and Pennsylvania Bailroad, 15, each; People's Gas, 14; St. Louis and San Francisco preferred and Union Pacific preferred, 1% each; General Electrie and North America, I each; Missouri Paeific and Northern Pacific preferred, ? each: Union Pacific and Northern Pacific, 5 7 cent. each. The noteworthy declines are in Reading Reading 2d preferred, 1; Union Pacific, Denver and Gulf, A. and Rending, & F cent.

Trolley Blockade on the Bridge The worst blockade on the bridge since th trolley ears began operations occurred at 8:45 o'clock yesterday morning. It was caused by the burning of one of the big electric switch boxes near the Sands street entrance. These boxes control the motive power for the cars. Dokes control the motive power for the cars. The accident was due to lightning striking the wires, the excessive current setting fire to the switchbox. It took thirty-five minutes to get the emergency switch box in use. Meanwhile the trolley cars were stalled on both roadways and on all the approaches beyond the City Hall in Brooklyn. There was a great rush to the clevated cars.

Held for Swindling Amsterdam Bankers. Barend Stranders, a tobacconist, who arrived in this city from Rotterdam about a week ago under the assumed name of Bernhardt Josephs was charged by William M. B. Gravenhorst, the Netherlands Consul-General, before Commis-sloner Lyman, yesterday, with having swindled Hope & Co., bankers in Amsterdam, out of $13,000 by means of false representations and forged commercial paper. The preliminary hearing in the case was adjourned until Wednes-day, Stranders being held without ball.

Brokers Hurrah for Normal School Girls Thirty-five young women came to the New York Stock Exchange yesterday morning and were piloted by Chief Doorkeeper Deacon to the visitors' gallery. With them were half a dozen men, the party representing the alumni and teachers of the Cumberland Valley State Normal School of Shippensburg, Pa. The brokers cheered their visitors. The Normal School girls have been making a tour. They left the Exchange to go to the Sub-Treasury and Assay Office and to the Brooklyn Bridge.

Troops Out in Kentucky to Guard a Negro. FRANKFORT, Ky., July 9 .- A conflict between citizens of Mayfield and State militia guarding Blanks, the negro, who is on trial in the Graves County Circuit Court, is feared by Adit.-Gen. Collier, who is personally in charge of the troops. Gen. Collier telegraphed Gov. Bradley late last night that an outbreak was imminent. In response to this the Governor started a snecial train this morning to Mayfield, conveying the Pewee Valley company of troops, a Gatling gun and several thousand rounds of ammunition.

Torture Goes On, Rain or Shine. "We used to work days and shut off nights," said Mr. Gozzleby, "but many things that we used to do in that way we keep right along with now night and day-as, for instance, building operations-and in very many ways we waste less time than we formerly did. What makes me think of this just now is seeing a hand organ with a rubber cover pulled enugly down over it, and not taken in, but standing in the street and going right on playing in the rain. No postponement on account of the weather; no lost time. It was characteristic of the age and the country."

The Bergall as a Jumper. The bergall might not suggest itself to many people as being much of a jumper, but it does pretty well in that line nevertheless. There are a number of bergalls in a tank at the Aquaare a number of bergais in a tank at the Aqua-rium next to the tank containing striped bass, and occasionally one gets over into the hass tank by jumping up on the top of the dividing wall and then wriggling over. The top of this wall is a foot wide and a foot above the surface of the water, and the bergails that jump to this keight are about nine inches in length.

WHAT SOURTY IS DOING. There is a big party of New Yorkers at the Oriental Manhattan Beach. Some of the men, like Henry Clows, find that business in New York conflicts with a Newport summer residence. Mr. and Mrs. George G. Williams are at the Oriental with their family. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Delano Robbins are one of the young couples at the place. Mrs. Robbins is a sister of Royal Phelps Carroll and Charles Carroll and a daughter of former Gov. John Lee Carroll of Marriand. Among the others at the hotel are Speaker Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Platt, and Congressman Hitt and his wife. Miss Reed has just joined her father there. Prince Victor Emanuel, Count of Turin.

expected at Newport soon. He will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson Spencer. at "Althorp," a colonial cottage on Ochre Point.

The place is somewhat inland, and is directly back of the Kernochan villa. Year before last, when they went abroad, it was rented to Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish. Mrs. Spencer was a Miss Wallace, and on the maternal side is a relative of the Willings.

There was a general celebration at Tuxedo on the Fourth of July. The morning was given up to outdoor sports for the edification of the employees at the place. Climbing greased poles, sack races, and other things of the sort were in order. One of the night events was a boat race on the lake. There were fourteen boat race on the mack. There were noticed entries, each of which had to be accompanied by a goodly sum of money. All this went to the Red Cross Society. The boats were brightly lighted and embellished in unique fashion, William Kent's boat took the first prize. It represented a Red Cross tent. Richard Mortimer's boat came in third.

Capt. and Mrs. Walter Ewart are likely to be heard of hereafter as members of the Anglo American set in London. Capt. Ewart's father was Gen. Sir John Alexander Ewart. Capt. and Mrs. Ewart are to visit Gen. Ewart at his place Mrs. Ewart are to visit Gen. Ewart at his place, Craigleuch, Langholm, Dumfries, Scotland. They will come to America on a trip later on. The marriage of Pierre Moller and Miss Leila Wotherspoon will be celebrated within a month of the marriage of Mr. Moller's sister to Capt. Ewart. It is to take place in Paris early in August. Miss Wotherspoon has been travelling in Europe for the past nine months. Her mother, Mrs. James Wotherspoon, went to France last week to be present at the wedding.

The Newport cottage set is now collected pretty much in its entirety. Among the recen arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt are not likely to re-turn to this country till August. Mr. Vander-bilt is now fairly well and has deferred his trip home in order to prolong his latest treatment.

Bobert; Goelet, Jr., salled yesterday for Europe on the Etruria. He will pass his vacation abroad with his mother and sister, Mrs. Ogden Goelet and Miss May Goelet. He is a member of the class of 1900 at Harvard, as is William K. Vanderbilt, Jr.

William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., took a crowd of roung people around on his yacht to Oliver H. P. Belmont's country place, Gray Crag Park, at Middletown, on Friday. Mrs. Belmont gave a plenic there, and, after an elaborate luncheon, there was a minstrel performance.

Mr and Mrs. Hugh Scott will spend the rest of the summer travelling on the other side. After their wedding on Wednesday at Bar Har-bor they came directly to New York. Mr. Scott is a son of James P. Scott and grandson of the late Thomas A. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pollock, who were los on the Bourgogne, were extremely popular in New York society as well as at Washington. which was their home. Mr. Pollock was a noted which was their nome. Mr. Poliock was a noted patent lawyer and a millionaire. He made his fortune through the Bell, Singer, and Goodyear concerns. The very day before he sailed he had Henry Clews invest $40,000 in bonds for him. So far as is known his sole heirs are three young nieces who live in Paris.

A PRISONER'S LITERARY BLUFF.

Leroy, Up for Burglary, Displays Som Heavy Literature—Looks Like a Student. Harry Leroy, who is but 22 years old and looks like a college student, was held in $1,500 in the West Fifty-fourth Street Court yesterday for trial for burglary. When arraigned h posed with his arms folded on the rail in front of the desk, and holding up under his chin copy of Quo Vadis, a book on Roman history and a magazine. The books were so fixed that the Magistrate could read their titles.

"That's his regular literary bluff," said Detective Charleton, who had made the arrest He is the most genteel man in the business He will not rob anything but swell flat houses and he works only three afternoons a week.

and he works only three afternoons a week. His profits are large enough to enable him to live in apartments at 25 West Sixty-fourth street and keep servants. He has been arrested several times, and his picture has been in the Rogues' Gallery for four years; but he has never been convicted."

The complainant against him yesterday was Miss May Gallagher of 11 Manhattan avenue, who said that her apartments had been entered on June 24 and $450 worth of clothing, jewelry, and silverware had been taken. The property was found in the possession of a pawnbroker, who gave the detectives a description of the man from whom he had bought it. On the strength of the description Leroy was arrested on Columbus avenue, near Ninety-eighth street.

between New York, Boston and Philadelphis enable us to execute orders promptly and to the entire satisfaction of our customers.

The stock markets are gaining new life, and broadening in both an investment and speculative way. The present absorption of Securities is similar to the memorable campaign of 1880-81, which carried the price of 8t. Paul to 180; C., B., Q., 18a. Rock Island, 180; Northwest, 150; Abchison, 140; Union Pacifio, 180; Reading, 74; Jersey Central, 12; Erie, 18; Louisville and Nashville, 170, and New York Central, 185, which is now under good headway to reach that price again.

The remarkable conditions of our country's growth, commercially and politically, now existing make a situation such as never before confronted our markets, and a readjustment of values upon a scale of corresponding magnitude must form a part of the general march of progress. Minimum interest rates, such as are now ruling the world over, and the enormous increase of circulating funds available for investment purposes are most projitious factors to a great bull movement such as in 1880.

From every point of view the comparison between the two periods is in favor of the present time, and future prices will prove this fact.
